

THE ETERNAL STREAM

© C. S. Craig

Voices from the future cry
The world is all a gleam
Come join us, come hither - arise
It's time to cross the eternal stream

Receive my kiss upon your brow
My days are like a dream
I must leave you, leave you now
And pass the eternal stream

Hold me in your arms once more
As whisperers call my name
The winds chase time across the shore
Above the eternal stream

They have gathered for my eternal flight
Angels with gorgeous wings
Carry me now to the place of light
Across the eternal stream
